

WHAT IS CLAIMED IS:

1. A pelletization method for bulbous plants comprising the steps of:

a) mixing one of more materials selected from a group consisting of fertilizer, plant growth regulator, bactericide and insecticide with peatmoss using water-soluble glue;

b) compressing and forming a pellet by dividing it into a lid and an entity to insert bulbous plants in that from the mixture prepared in Step a);

c) drying the pellet formed Step b); and

d) inserting the bulbous plants in the dried entity, covering them with the dried lid and compressing them to produce the resulting pellet with an inserted bulbous plants.

2. The pelletization method in Claim 1 in which the bulbous plants are one selected from a group consisting of Lilium tigrinum main bud and potato.

3. A pellet of the bulbous plants prepared according to the method described in Claim 1 containing any of the bulbous plants described in Claim 2

4. A cultivation method for plants that involves the planting and germinating of the pellets of the bulbous plants described in Claim 3.

5. The cultivation method for plants in Claim 4, wherein it is treated in the soil surface without being covered with earth again after sowing.